

Renwick Interiors

Video Resume Script (approximately 30-40 sec.)

I find my job most rewarding the moment I see my clients' faces brighten at the sight of their newly decorated spaces.

In all my years of experience, I have never used the same paint colour twice because each space should be one-of-a-kind and express your unique personality. It's you that makes a space special. Whether for the bedroom, living room, kitchen or office, your individual style is what's important.

An ideal space should be functional and beautiful. This is the balance I try to achieve for you. A room should be an extension of your personality and a reflection of your lifestyle.

Committed to enriching your environment, I'm interior decorator Barbra Renwick.
